CHRISTMAS NUMBER OF SUN AND SHADE

We beg to state that a Second Edition is now ready for delivery. This unusually beautiful publication, which consists of a Series of Five Photogravures from Life Pictures, executed by Messrs. Davis & Sanford, of New York, is appropriately designated

A BEVY OF FAIR WOMEN

Each page, encircled by a specially designed ornamental border, contains not only the portraits of Beautiful Women, but is supplemented by Two Months of Almanac dates, so that the whole of the Six Pages form a Calendar for 1895. These are preceded by

AN EXQUISITE PORTRAIT PLATE

In the New Color Process of the New York Photogravure Co. And all are inclosed in a Specially Designed Artistic Cover from a drawing by Mr. Thomson Willing, who also supplied the designs for the ornate borders.

"The current number of SUN AND SHADE is one of much artistic beauty and elegance. The frontispiece is a reproduction by the chrome-gelatine process, in color, of a young girl's head, entitled 'Edelweiss.' It is remarkably successful in its delicacy of tone and dainty flesh modeling. No process work is recalled wherein the difficult problems of the color of the human face have been so satisfactorily overcome. There are six photogravures of 'fair women' from life pictures, executed by Davis & Sanford, with ornamental borders and designs that make attractive calendars. They are printed in tints, and are fine specimens of half-tone work. This magazine is published monthly."—New York Times.

"The charm of the December SUN AND SHADE is the lovely frontispiece 'Edelweiss,' done by the chrome-gelatine process. It is a revelation in process printing. The rest of the number is devoted to a calendar for 1895, and of course is very artistic."—Boston Times.

"The plate by the chrome-gelatine process marks a high achievement in process printing."—Architecture and Building. "A very pretty supplement to SUN AND SHADE for December, comes in the shape of a calendar for the ensuing year. Six illustrations represent the twelve months of the year. They are all photogravures, and each shows the pretty and graceful figure of a woman in artistic pose. The frontispiece is colored, and is entitled 'Edelweiss.'"—Detroit Free Press. "It will certainly interest any one who cares for bright and beautiful prints to see the Photogravure Co.'s productions."—Mail and Express.

We greatly regret that, owing to a recent fire, the plates prepared for this—the January number—were injured to the extent of necessitating re-making. Hence the production of the picture and monograph of

"CHRIST IN THE TEMPLE"

Have been temporarily delayed. They will be presented in an early number of the magazine.

BROWNE'S METALLIC AND RUBBER WEATHER STRIPS.—The OLDEST, the BEST, the CHEAPEST in market. Stood the test 20 YEARS. They exclude COLD DRAFTS around windows and doors in WINTER, keep out DUST in Summer, and stop RATTLING SASHES. We employ EXPERIENCED and RESPONSIBLE workmen, and guarantee ENTIRE SATISFACTION. We send, FREE OF CHARGE, men with samples and prices to measure and give cost. We warrant them good for FIVE YEARS.
